A note from Dr. John Cataldo, Academic Dean:

Currently on exhibition in the Offices of Academic Affairs are several paintings by Ron Hayes.

The paintings are part of a new series and a new direction which are rich in texture, color and provocative as images.

In response to a general request from the College Council, the Exhibitions Committee has reserved the first two weeks in each semester for faculty exhibitions at both the Longwood and the Overland Galleries (four two-week time slots in all).

All faculty members who would like to exhibit with one or more colleagues are asked to submit a proposal to Virginia Gunter, Director of Exhibitions.
